New York, New York - Manhattan Edit Workshop (Mewshop), the cutting-edge authorized digital training destination for post-production and content creators, is pleased to present legendary FCP guru Evan Schechtman to demonstrate the new Final Cut Pro 10.0.1 release at CreateSphere New York's Super Summit 2 - State of the NLE - taking place tonight from 6:30pm to 9:30pm at The New Yorker Hotel's Crystal Ballroom.

In addition to the learning about the new features in the Final Cut Pro 10.0.1 release, attendees will have a chance to win Mewshop's brand new Final Cut Pro X training tutorial. Mewshop will launch the new Final Cut Pro X online training series "Classroom in a Cup" on September 22, 2011. A no holds barred tutorial, Mewshop's Josh Apter and Apple(R) Certified Trainer Ari Feldman teach the ins-and-outs of Final Cut Pro X with candid commentary about the radical changes - the good, the bad, and the ugly - with special focus on the immense potential offered in one of the industry's most beloved editing applications.

For more information, please visit Manhattan Edit Workshop online. Mewshop offers student loans for courses totaling more than $2,500. Students may take a combination of courses together, or a single course that equals that amount. Please call 212-414-9570 or email Jason for details about our available payment plans.

Manhattan Edit Workshop was founded in 2002 with the goal of providing cutting-edge editing instruction on Apple, Adobe(R) and Avid(R) platforms. In 2011 Mewshop added Avid Pro Tools(R) 9 training to its already impressive curriculum. Mewshop's signature Six-Week Intensive is a jump-start for anyone looking for a career in editing, while weekend and one-week courses introduce and solidify core-editing concepts. Corporate and group training offers a customized curriculum, either in-house or on-site, for professionals eager to learn a new skill or to build on existing ones. The facility's focus on small workshops, highly skilled and certified faculty, and a results-oriented curriculum, have quickly won it the reputation as New York's premier post production teaching facility.
