Malibu, CA - appsNminded, an LA-based iPhone app development company successfully founded last year by 3 moms, have launched the latest app from their successful My Girlz series: My Girlz Rocks 1.0.1 for iPhone and iPod touch. The app allows users to listen to tween pop artists songs and learn the lyrics. They can also try out for the My Girlz band and get scored by the judges. The new hot artists that are promoted in the first volume of the app are: J. Rose, Olivia Bonilla, Chessie Chaney, Abi Hoffman and Pink Army. All albums are available for sale at the iTunes store via app.

"We're really excited about this app, as it's not only a really fun app for the girls to play, but it utilizes the Linkshare program and gives us another revenue stream" said Cara Hall, appsNminded partner. The company plans to release a new volume every few weeks to keep the fans happy and excited. "There are so many great new artists out there who need a chance to be heard and this is a great vehicle do just that", she added
