Chengdu, China - "Pigs VS Wolves", the addictive TD game for iPhone and iPod Touch, is now released on App Store. This game designed by Digiarty Software features dynamic gameplay and is available now for $1.99 only.

"Challenges yourself by this game, it will excite you than you ever have." said Jack, CEO of Digiarty, "Pigs VS Wolves is our hard effort to fulfill those who are fascinated by iPhone games, especially TD game. And it is even beyond the traditional TD game in multiple ways. Worth you to play. Any suggestions from public or professional editors are welcome. It will help us to improve our games."

As the name of the game suggests, it's a fantastic game beginning with the war between pigs and wolves. This game presents a new generation TD game in the 2D game world with unexpected challenges. Comparing with the traditional TD game, it is designed with much powerful defense capability as well as fierce confrontation.

In the game of Pigs VS Wolves, you'll be in charge of your own destiny. This game requires you to adopt different strategies to defense the wolves' attack for each level by generating gold coin, choosing characters, using defensive props, etc. Fifteen species of pigs are involved in this war, each with a unique play style. And eleven types of wolves are also offered to attack the pigs in changeable way.

As a constructive game, it creates plenty of different levels with a variety of barriers that are perfect for users who are seeking for the highest point of difficulty. What's more, its variability of the scene makes it hard to estimate what will happen next minute. It challenges players the reaction and wisdom greatly.

When playing this game, you are playing the part of a tactician, must know when and how to defense or attack. To protect the pigs and win the war, you must ensure the resources are well arranged in proper position, the right way is chosen to assort the defense and offense characters, as well as fast action. So the ability of customizing combination for greater offense and defense provides fantastic replay value.

Pigs VS Wolves is a high-valued iPhone game, bringing new level of quality and control to the general game player. Besides, the graphics are also so good and satisfying. You will get a surprisingly, remarkably TD game experience in this game.
