Chengdu, China - Digiarty Software is pleased to announce Graves Robber 1.0, a brand new 3D RPG zombies-shooting game, released on App Store today. Graves Robber features addictive gameplay and stunning graphics. It is now available for $4.99 only.

"Graves Robber is released much earlier than it scheduled. This would be great news for those iPhone game fans, especially those who are fascinated by the zombie game, shooting game or RPG game. This game combines all these popular features together and brings you unexpected adventuring experience." said CEO of Digiarty Software, Jack.

It is a RPG game beginning with the desire to get six crystal skulls from Sara, who is playing as a professional grave robber in this game. To get the skulls, she has to eliminate a given amount of zombies and defeat the big boss. One skull is rewarded once a boss is killed. This requires you to take up arms and kill as many zombies as possible for updating the ability level. And multiple powerful weapons and equipments are provided for you to increase your attack and defense ability if you have accumulated enough gold coins. And props are also offered to help you complete the task. Challenge yourself to be the best and create a stylish character as you desired.

Graves Robber is designed with a silky smooth 3D environment, featuring different control schemes to suit your style. The Intuitive touch-screen controls and dazzling burst effect will bring you to a real war between Sara and the zombies. Overall, Graves Robber is fantastic 3D shooting game with gorgeous picture and vivid character animation. For those who are looking for excitement and interested in pushing the performance of your iPhone, then it would be the best choice.
