Dusseldorf, Germany - Hot Chili Apps today is pleased to announce the release of Valentine C@rds 1.9 for iPhone and iPod touch devices. Valentine C@rds are part of the C@rds series of Hot Chili Apps, mobile e-card templates for almost any occasion - such as birthdays, Christmas, removals and many more. C@rds is the most sophisticated mobile card app in the App Store.

For the creation of digital post cards the user is benefiting from iPhone/iPad/iPodTouch's facilities: the template's body and frame can be individually chosen with the Color Picker. Color and size variations of texts and photographs can be altered with just two fingers. The final positioning of the elements within the layout is done with just one finger. C@rds is innovative, trendy and totally unique. Digital postcards can be sent directly from the application to the device's photo album, emailed to family and friends, and even shared on Facebook, Twitter, or tumblr.

"For Valentine C@rds we developed some very beautiful designs in different styles.", explains Farid Zendagui, CEO Hot Chili Apps. "The visuals are as varying as love can be - passionate, romantic, sensual and much more." Love is a well known topic for Hot Chili Apps, with their Love C@rds and applications like "Call Schatzi" or "Heart button" soaring right into the top-100 table after being launched. Their latest app for the 14th of February definitely brings some more heartfelt love into the Appstore.
