

TheGadgetLocker.com Rolls Out Big Savings With Cyber Monday(s) Program

Published on 11/26/07

Well-known Macintosh, iPod, and iPhone accessory retailer, TheGadgetLocker.com, today announced the debut of Cyber Monday(s), an innovative program that provides generously discounted pricing on all products carried by TheGadgetLocker.com throughout the 2007 holiday season.

Selden, NY - November 26, 2007 - Well-known Macintosh, iPod, and iPhone accessory retailer, TheGadgetLocker.com, today announced the debut of Cyber Monday(s), an innovative program that provides generously discounted pricing on all products carried by TheGadgetLocker.com throughout the 2007 holiday season.

The program works quite simply: Beginning today, Monday, November 26, 2007, and every Monday thereafter up through and including Monday, December 31, 2007, is a Cyber Monday.

Customers shopping at TheGadgetLocker.com on any of those Mondays will receive an automatic 10% discount off their entire order by using the coupon code 'cybermonday'. "During the holidays, we all want to stretch our gift dollars as far as possible," said TheGadgetLocker.com founder and president, Joe Ryan. "As such, we want to thank and recognize our loyal customers by providing them with great prices and deals throughout the holiday season, and not just on a single day. Cyber Monday(s) lets us do exactly that."

As part of the Cyber Monday(s) program, TheGadgetLocker.com guarantees delivery by December 24 of all purchases made at TheGadgetLocker.com, provided the product is in stock and purchased no later than, Monday, December 17, 2007.

For complete information on Cyber Monday(s) and to take advantage of your holiday savings on the most popular products for the Mac, iPod, and iPhone, visit TheGadgetLocker.com.
