Haymarket, Virginia - Independent entrepreneur Jonathan Conway has released iPotato the Game 1.2 for iPhone and iPod touch. iPotato the Game is an addictive game that reaches you, your family, friends, and random players "locally" and "Globally" (you decide) for a unique game playing experience enabled by Apples v3.0 software push notification technology.

iPotato is one of the first games on the market to make use of this exciting new technology from Apple. Get ready for the fast, fun, and exciting world of iPotato! Challenge your friends or the Global game playing community and keep striving for the top score!

iPotato game play focuses on the toss, receipt, and re-toss of an iPotato to your registered contacts, or randomly to community players in key continents worldwide (America's; Asia, Europe, Africa, and Australia). Points are awarded for your speed in responding to a tossed iPotato, you are allowed up to 45 seconds from the time of receipt to re-toss the iPotato or you will get 'burned!' Re-tossing the iPotato before the time runs out, will award you points. If you fail to toss the iPotato, you will get burned which costs you points and lowers your ranking in the iPotato game statistics.

Earn Real Rewards!

Annually, beginning Jan 01, 2011 (time stamped at 11:59.59 PM PST) we will award the previous years top scoring players with iTunes gift cards worth monetary increments in the following order:

- * Number one: $50.00 (US)
- * Number two: $25.00 (US)
- * Number three $10.00 (US)
- * Numbers 6-10 ($5.00)

Good luck Ladies and Gentlemen! It's time to "Toss your iPotatos!"

Visually Tracked!

Interested in where your iPotato has been traveling, or where it burned another player? You can select the 'Previous Potatos' button, which is fully integrated with Google maps, to see each and every location where your iPotato has been tossed (green icons), and where it eventually burned a receiver (red icons). This unique feature allows you to witness your iPotato in action as it has traveled around the world. Where will your iPotato travel today?

Your Privacy Is Important To Us!

Your personal information will not be shared with anyone, you decide the information you would like to provide during the creation of your unique iPotato user name. We have purposely minimized the information required at registration to provide a real assurance that we mean what we say.
