Toulouse, France - Independent software developer David Palmerio today is pleased to announce the release of E-Blues 1.2, his new blues music learning tool for iPhone and iPod touch devices. Discover and learn the Blues guitar in (almost) 5 minutes. This method presents 8 pieces of progressive levels, and each lesson is explained and the difficulties analyzed. The musical notation and theory is accompanied by audio and movie recordings.

Acoustic Blues:

- * Lesson 1: Just take your guitar and begin with a traditional acoustic shuffle in the key of E
- * Lesson 2: Play a funky blues with more advanced rhythm pattern
- * Lesson 3: You can now improve your technique with a new slow shuffle, including open chords and multi-fingering turnaround ending

Stratocaster Blues:

- * Lesson 1: Discover Texas Blues played on electric guitar and understand the using of pentatonic scale
- * Lesson 2: Introduction to the minor Blues in the style of BB King
- * Lesson 3: Play a Texas Blues in the style of Stevie Ray Vaughan rake on strings. Concluding the piece with a boogie

Les Paul Blues:

- * Lesson 1: The use of Wha Pedal for a more modern blues
- * Lesson 2: Leaving the pure Blues style for a more Blues Rock lesson
