

NameTones by SingMyRing lets users create customized musical ringtones

Published on 04/13/10

SingMyRing Ltd. releases NameTones 1.0 on the iTunes AppStore. Just like having a personal ringtone recording studio in your pocket, NameTones lets anyone create customized musical ringtones, giving them a degree of personalization never before available. The app contains over 2000 popular English names and 9 distinct musical styles to give users over 18,000 ways to express themselves. NameTones also allows users to create and send customized ringtones to friends and contacts.

Vancouver, Canada - SingMyRing Ltd., a maker of entertaining mobile applications, has announced the launch of NameTones on the iTunes AppStore. NameTones lets users create customized musical ringtones, giving them a degree of personalization never before available on the AppStore.

NameTones is like having a personal ringtone recording studio in your pocket. The app contains over 2000 popular English names and 9 distinct musical styles to give users over 18,000 ways to express themselves. With the app's intuitive scrolling interface, users simply select a name, choose a musical style and NameTones does the rest, creating a customized ringtone that's sent via email directly to the user's phone.

Choose from NameTones 9 musical categories: Acoustic, Barbershop Quartet, Dance, Disco, Funk, Garage, Rave, R&B and Rock & Roll. Paired with NameTones extensive database of common U.S. and U.K. names, the result is a high quality ringtone that's both personalized and professional.

Adding to the app's value, NameTones also allows users to create and send customized ringtones to friends and contacts. NameTones supports multiple file formats, so ringtones can be delivered to anyone with an iPhone or mp3 enabled device. Whether they're looking for cool, funny or funky, NameTones users can create and send ringtones that will have their friends thinking of them every time they answer a call.
