

TOM BIHN announces New iPad Travel Bag

Published on 04/14/10

Seattle based TOM BIHN has announced the Co-Pilot personal carry-on travel bag, sized specifically for travel essentials, including your iPad. The Co-Pilot is a small, carry-on sized travel bag sized to fit the essentials, the items that you want close at hand and easily accessible during your flight. The iPad will fit in its Apple case or in its Apple case within the TOM BIHN Cache for iPad sleeve inside of the main compartment of the Co-Pilot.

Seattle, WA - TOM BIHN, a designer, manufacturer, and retailer of laptop and travel bags has announced the Co-Pilot personal carry-on travel bag - sized specifically for travel essentials, including your iPad. The Co-Pilot is a small, carry-on sized travel bag sized to fit the essentials - the items that you want close at hand and easily accessible during your flight.

The iPad will fit in its Apple case or in its Apple case within the TOM BIHN Cache for iPad sleeve inside of the main compartment of the Co-Pilot. The Co-Pilot is designed to be used on its own or as a compliment to the TOM BIHN Aeronaut, Tri-Star, or Western Flyer carry-on travel bags.

Features of the Co-Pilot include:

- * Made of 1050d U.S. ballistic nylon/Japanese Dyneema/nylon rip-stop fabric
- * YKK splash-proof zippers
- * Ultrasuede-lined iPhone pocket
- * Includes a comfortable Standard Shoulder Strap
- * Made in the TOM BIHN Factory in Seattle, Washington
- * Water bottle pocket
- * Multiple pen/organizational pockets

The Co-Pilot is featured in a new video highlighting the production process at the TOM BIHN Factory in Seattle, Washington. (Links to video below, including a high-resolution version sized for viewing on the iPad.)

Pricing and Availability:

The Co-Pilot is $110. Available for pre-order exclusively through their website; ships worldwide by mid-June. In addition to the Co-Pilot, TOM BIHN bags for the iPad include the Ristretto for iPad - a vertical messenger bag with a built-in padded compartment for the iPad - and the Cache for iPad, a soft, protective sleeve designed to protect the iPad against scrapes and scratches.
