

Jourist's Travel Interpreter 1.2 for iPhone OS - Hear Foreign Phrases

Published on 04/19/10

Jourist Verlag in Hamburg, Germany, today announces Travel Interpreter 1.2 for the iPad, iPhone or iPod touch. Travel Interpreter is a talking phrasebook which translates English into 23 different languages. Choose any supported language and the app displays 15 topics from which the user can select one of 2,100 useful words or phrases. Each phrase is spoken aloud by a native speaker, illustrated with a witty cartoon, written out in English, the foreign language and an English transliteration.

Hamburg, Germany - Jourist Verlags GmbH today is pleased to announce the release of Travel Interpreter 1.2 for the iPad, iPhone or iPod touch. Travel Interpreter is a talking phrasebook which translates English into 23 different languages. Choose any supported language and the app displays 15 topics from which the user can select one of 2,100 useful words or phrases. Each phrase is spoken aloud by a native speaker, illustrated with a witty cartoon, written out in English, the foreign language and an English transliteration.

Travel Interpreter employs a convenient method for navigating to the desired phrase. 15 topics or categories appear in a scrollable list: Basics, Traveling, Hotel, Local Transport, Sightseeing, Bank, Means of Communication, In the Restaurant, Food/Drinks, Shopping, Repairs/Laundry, Sports/Leisure, Health/Drugstore, Beauty Care, and Calling for Police. Having chosen a topic, 4 - 18 subtopics are listed. Finally, 5 - 25 phrases are listed from which the user can select. To ask "Would you please send the luggage to my room?", the user selects the topic Hotel, then the subtopic Service, and then the phrase. Alternatively, the user may simply type in the word "luggage" and be taken directly to the phrase.
