Chatsworth, CA - February 28, 2008 - The next meeting of the Los Angeles Final Cut Pro User Group (lafcpug) will be Wednesday, February 27 at the Gallery Theatre in Hollywood CA. beginning at 6:45PM.

19 Marines and their instructors from the Wounded Marine Careers Foundation in San Diego will bus up to lafcpug to show clips of their work and talk about what they've learned in the 10 week film and media production school which trains wounded Marines for a career in media, filmmaking, sound design, editing, graphics and photojournalism. This is the inaugural class. You can read about this school and the Marines, in this recent NY Times article.

Also on the agenda will be Ricardo Silva, developer of Sugarfx who will wow our eyes with his suite of motion graphic templates and effects for FCS 2.

Marcelo Lewin (The Digital Media Dude) will show us a bunch of useful FCP Tips and tricks we should know. Plus, Show and Tells, Stump The Gurus and of course, World Famous Raffle. And more!

A $5.00 donation will be requested at the door. Doors open at 6PM. lafcpug meetings are open to the public. First come, best seat. For more details as well as directions to the Gallery Theatre, visit the lafcpug web site.

The Los Angeles Final Cut Pro User Group, (lafcpug) was established in June of 2000 by a few dozen folks who had been meeting regularly on the forums of 2-pop.com. the lafcpug was created simply for a chance to meet face to face and share our experiences and concerns surrounding Final Cut Pro. It is now the single largest FCP User Group in the world.
