Santa Clara, California - MacService has announced a MacBook Air 24 hour screen replacement program. You can now replace your cracked MacBook Air screen via their nationwide mail-in repair program for $445. All prices include free roundtrip shipping, installation and a laptop shipping container.

All screens come with a one year warranty and a MacService exclusive Zero Dead Pixel policy. MacService certified technicians are the best in the industry and know your Mac inside and out. All repairs, upgrades and diagnostics are performed in a clean, organized and professional atmosphere.

How the service works:

MacService sends a custom laptop shipping container to you. Once it arrives, simply pack your laptop and send it back using the prepaid UPS shipping label. Once your laptop is back at MacService, a certified technician installs a new LCD screen. A Service Advisor will keep you informed every step of the way. After the service is complete, your laptop is cleaned, tested and sent back to you. All services are completed within 24 hours of arrival.
