Luxembourg, Europe - Houdah Software has published video tutorials for both HoudahSpot and HoudahGeo. These videos were produced by Don McAllister of ScreenCastsOnline. They are now available for free viewing on the Houdah web site.

With these screencasts Don McAllister has done a great job giving users an introduction to both products. Actually, even long-standing HoudahSpot or HoudahGeo users may learn a new trick or two while watching the videos. For many this will save a trip to the bundled "Help" documentation.

The screencasts are prominently featured on the Houdah web site. Prospective users will find they can familiarize themselves with the product of their desire - while the actual download proceeds.

HoudahSpot is Houdah Software's bestselling file search tool for the Mac. It allows for users to unleash the full power of Spotlight to find, manage and clean up files. The most recent version, HoudahSpot 2.1, can act as a full replacement to the default Spotlight UI. It combines the ease of use of the default Spotlight menu with the full power HoudahSpot is known for. HoudahSpot has recently been awarded 4 mice by Macworld magazine. It has also been featured as Mac OS X Hints "Pick of the Week".

HoudahGeo is the premiere geocoding solution for the Mac. It covers all aspects of geocoding. GPS device optional: HoudahGeo allows for both automatic and map based geocoding. EXIF/IPTC/XMP support: HoudahGeo may write GPS meta data right back into image files. Publish: HoudahGeo exports to Google Earth, Google Maps & Flickr!
