After the most recent update, rankings in the app store have climbed to 17th in the productivity category.

Los Angeles, California - App Apps has continued to create improvements in the user experience of their flagship app, Auditorium Notes, that has struck a positive chord with Apple iPad users. After the most recent update, rankings in the app store have climbed to 17th in the productivity category.

Founder Michael Emmons commented on the recent success, "Our focus, as always, is on creating a great user experience. We've always believed - and I think the recent upward trend in sales and rankings proves out - that users who really love an app are the best marketing you could hope for. In our case, this word of mouth marketing has provided some great visibility for us and we've had mentions on popular tech sites like twit.tv's iPad Today show. We are currently the #1 iPad app when searching for notes."

Auditorium Notes is great way record, organize, review and share your audio and text notes from your meetings, classes, and conferences. With its beautiful interface and unique approach to organizing notes by Category and Subject, you'll always be able to find the notes you want, fast.

Dropbox syncing is integrated, so your notes will be backed up to the cloud and available instantly, anywhere, to any device with internet access. You can review or edit your notes on your desktop and the changes will automatically sync back to the app.

With TextExpander integration, user can instantly insert the date, time, or any other often used text with just a few keystrokes. Once you have TextExpander snippets set up, the best note taking app on the iPad will also be the fastest!
