Scottsdale, Arizona - Cynical Peak Software announces the update of Scorecard 1.4, their golf scorecard and statistics application for Mac OS X and Windows XP and Vista. Scorecard allows golf enthusiasts to track statistics on Mac and Windows systems. The application offers comprehensive statistics, helping users discover trends and explore aspects of their gameplay that might otherwise go unnoticed. Statistics are viewable over a period of time, offering users an idea about whether they are improving or need to work on areas of play.

Scorecard 1.4 gives golfers further insight into their game with the new putting accuracy table. The putting accuracy table gives golfers a breakdown of their putting performance by distance attempted. This will allow golfers to quickly focus in on their problem lengths and allow them to practice and improve on their problem areas.

Feature Highlights in Version 1.4:

- * Track your handicap and anti-handicap to monitor your overall game play.
- * Follow over 30 essential stats to monitor all aspects of your game.
- * Easy course and round entry to quickly update your stats after each round.
- * HTML export of rounds for displaying on the web.
- * Deactivation of rounds for the statistics window to allow the user to focus on a time period or set of rounds.
- * Printing of the statistics screen.
- * Smart selection of the course when adding a new round based on play history.
- * Statistics can now be based on all tees for a course.

Various Performance Improvements and Bug Fixes include:

- * Added the Putt Accuracy by Distance table
- * Added total first putt stat to the putts and best vs worst tables
- * Added tooltips for the table cells
- * Added Penalties to the best vs worst table
- * Updated the export css and html
- * Expanded alias support
- * Fixed displaying stats by tee

System Requirements Mac:

- * Requires Mac OS X v10.4.3 or later.
- * 2.4 MB Hard Drive space.

System Requirements Windows:

- * Requires Windows 2000, XP, or Vista.
- * .Net Framework 2.0 or newer.
- * 3.6 MB Hard Drive space.
