

Greenwave Software announces TalkBubbles 1.0 for iPhone and iPod Touch

Published on 07/09/08

Overland Park, Kansas - Greenwave Software LLC is proud to announce TalkBubbles 1.0, their fun-to-use photo sharing utility for iPhone and iPod Touch. TalkBubbles can add comic-like speech and thought bubbles to a picture from either the image library or photos taken with the iPhone's camera. Easily manipulate, position, and change the bubbles with the iPhone's touch interface. Images can be saved back to the devices library to share with friends.

Starting with a picture taken with the iPhone or by selecting one from the photo library, users can add dialog bubbles by double-tapping the screen. The style and placement of the bubbles can easily be changed with a touch, pinch, or drag. If a picture is worth a thousand words, then a picture with witty additions must be priceless. With TalkBubbles, it's as easy as one, two, three, and friends will be ROTFL.

Minimum Requirements:

* iPhone OS 2.0 running on either an iPhone or iPod Touch

Pricing and Availability:

A single user license for TalkBubbles is only $4.99 USD. TalkBubbles will be available when the Apple App Store launches.
