

Immersive French - Language Learning Success for iOS

Published on 04/28/11

Tampa based Wattanasoft today announces Immersive French for your iPad and iPhone. Immersive French includes innovative features that take language learning to a new level of success. Advanced phonetic spelling gets students speaking correctly from the start; interactive multimedia aides the students learning process; unit reviews re-enforce vocabulary; and advanced intuitive sequential learning builds lessons progressively.

Tampa, Florida - Wattanasoft, a leading provider of iOS language-learning apps, today is pleased to announce Immersive French for the iPad and iPhone. Immersive French provides the user with a full multimedia learning experience by associating pictures with spoken words and sentences. As a means of celebrating the launch, the developer is offering this language learning app - normally priced at $4.99 (USD) - for the reduced price of $0.99 (USD).

Immersive French includes innovative features that take language learning to a new level of success. Advanced phonetic spelling technology gets students speaking correctly from the start; interactive multimedia aides the students learning process; unit reviews re-enforce vocabulary; and advanced intuitive sequential learning builds lessons progressively. Students are instantly captivated by Immersive French so they stay motivated in learning. The early success the app provides makes their language-learning confidence soar.

The app works by teaching the user vocabulary words and then building off of those words to form complete sentences. All of this is done through a rich multimedia experience by presenting the user with pictures that represent the words and sentences they are being taught. Furthermore, Immersive French teaches the user how to pronounce each word correctly by providing the phonetic translation of every word.

From building a solid language-learning foundation to creating confidence and strengthening conversation skills, Immersive French provides an effective and enjoyable learning experience for anyone serious about learning French.
