The soft leather covering was designed to not only to be protective but to allow easy removal of the iPhone with just one hand.

Middleburg Heights, Ohio - Grantwood Technology, LLC today announced the release of the QuickFlipCase for iPhone and iPhone 3G, a premium leather case designed to comfortably secure the iPhone in place on your belt or waist.

The QuickFlipCase features a horizontally designed case with a smooth leather exterior with classic contrast stitching and a sturdy permanent belt clip. It also uses a secure magnetic enclosure for the lid, and simple center push-up hole to allow easy removal of your iPhone. When the iPhone is inside the QuickFlipCase, you can still access the headphone jack and sleep/wake button. Furthermore, the iPhone speakers are not covered when inside the QuickFlipCase to allow full speaker volume.

The soft leather covering was designed to not only to be protective but to allow easy removal of the iPhone with just one hand. The magnetic closure is strong but not overpowering and unlike Velcro, it quietly opens and will not wear out. Simply open the lid and slide out the iPhone with ease. Every aspect of the QuickFlipCase was designed for durability, comfort and style.

"Building on the success of our tuneband armband for the iPhone," states Michael Banks, co-founder and CEO of Grantwood Technology, LLC, "we wanted to have a leather iPhone case designed with all the best features without the expense of competing products."

The QuickFlipCase for the iPhone is compatible with both the original iPhone and the new iPhone 3G, and retails for $18.99 USD.
