

Stone Design ships Twittelator Pro 1.3 for iPhone/Touch

Published on 09/12/08

Stone Design and Big Stone Phone have just released new versions of Twittelator and Twittelator Pro, the full-feature native iPhone/Touch Twitter client. With many expert features including multiple accounts, Trending Topics, and Nearby Search for Tweeters, Twittelator Pro is the culmination of the expanding Twittelator customer base's wishes, desires and bug fixes. Version 1.3 fixes issues with Apple's iPhone/iPod Touch OS 2.1 which affect previous versions of Twittelator.

Albuquerque, NM - Stone Design today shipped a major update to Twittelator Pro, a feature packed native iPhone Twitter client. With many expert features including multiple accounts, Trending Topics, and Nearby Search for Tweeters, Twittelator Pro is the culmination of the expanding Twittelator customer base's wishes, desires and bug fixes. Version 1.3 fixes issues with Apple's iPhone/iPod Touch OS 2.1 which affect previous versions of Twittelator.

Stone Design's CEO and lead computer scientist Andrew Stone remarked "We have not been idle! In the last few weeks we received such positive response from mobile twitter users on what exactly would make it so they could use just Twittelator Pro and pitch their other twitter clients. We rose to the task, and are delighted to ship this version."
