Published on 10/25/11

UK based Code Redman today introduces Wild Dream Poker 1.0, a video poker game using Deuces Wild rules exclusive to the iPad, iPhone and iPod touch. The aim of the game to get the best poker hand possible from two draws. This fun implementation of the classic game includes large animated playing cards and table plus simple addictive gameplay. Dream Poker follows the popular Deuces Wild rules and pays out on 10 different hands starting from Three of a Kind.

Bristol, United Kingdom - Code Redman today is pleased to announced the availability of Wild Dream Poker, the latest in a range of card game apps exclusive to the iPad, iPhone and iPod touch. Wild Dream Poker is a fun animated version of the popular casino game video poker.

The objective of the game is to build your pile of playing chips by betting smart on getting a scoring poker hand from two draws. Wild Dream Poker follows the popular Deuces Wild rules and pays out on 10 different hands starting from Three of a Kind. This implementation of the classic game includes large fully illustrated and animated playing cards, an animated table, a choice of earth, sun and moon card backs, optional sound effects and, most importantly, simple addictive gameplay.

"Wild Dream Poker is our fourth video poker based game. Our series is proving popular and that means there are more apps to come" said Chris Redman, founder of Code Redman. "Wild Dream Poker has a fun look, like our previous release Dream Poker. The more realistic look of our 88 series of games, for instance Blackjack 88 and Baccarat 88 is also popular."

Wild Dream Poker can be downloaded and played for free. If the player is good and the luck goes with them, they are able to play it free forever. If not, the game gives you a few chips to play with after half an hour. You can also buy more chips in the app allowing you unlimited play.

Dream Poker is fully integrated into Game Center offering three leader boards and 21 achievements.
