And if your business is not yet profiled on FindFileMakerDevelopers ... 0 is the number of times your business has shown-up. That translates to missed opportunities for your business to be someone's (or several someone's) top-pick.

Now, ask yourself, when it comes to positively marketing your business, advertising your skills, strengthening your client-base, expanding your portfolio, increasing your revenue - are you willing to allow $35 USD month (Package dependent) stand in your way?

To drive your business forward, it is imperative to get your name, your skills, your business savvy in front of the right audience. Listing your business on FindFileMakerDevelopers (a.k.a FFD) provides invaluable marketing exposure, and acts as fantastic spring board to greater clientele and business revenue. FFD is the only FileMaker listing service that actively promotes its members and continually enhances its benefits. FFD has already revamped its search engine and most recently added the opportunity for companies to post employment opportunities.

With the addition of corporate job opportunities, FFD now marks the only place where end-users, other FileMaker Pro developers and talent seekers, have the ability to study FileMaker-focused companies, their respective employment opportunities and initiate contact with that person or company without ever having to leave the site. FFD is unique in the marketplace because it is the 1st site dedicated to connecting talent seekers with superior FileMaker talent.

What's more, FFD makes it extraordinarily easy for talent seekers to find the "right" talent without having to sift through countless listings of companies who may or may not meet the qualifications. For professionals, this translates to a greater number of hits, a broader level of exposure and most importantly more opportunities to be hired. As a FileMaker professional, the site will provide a surefire amount of positive exposure, providing an endless number of opportunities to get your company, your product, your skills in front of the right audience in the most direct fashion to-date.

FFD is host to a wide range of features and benefits never before offered through a single FileMaker-driven on-line resource. Features such as:

- * Seamless integration - FFD's simple, straight forward search engine provides quick, applicable results for both development firms and employment opportunities, simultaneously/
- * A rich detailed business synopsis with custom portfolio - It's a one-stop shop that includes all business affiliations, accreditations, custom graphics and personalized ad space that enables you to put your best foot forward, quickly and easily.
- * Weekly statistical reports - The only site that provides reports illustrating where you've been found - and where you've been missed.
- * Search Engine Optimization - We use all the tricks of the trade to make sure your profile is found by potential clients ... and you get the biggest bang for your buck! Incorporating site maps informs search engines about pages on a website. Not only do we generate the required sitemap.xml file automatically for you, we actively notify the leading search engines whenever you publish an updated profile, which in turn triggers a site map change.
- * Single point of contact - Allows interest parties to connect real-time via Skype, iChat, email, phone, etc.
- * Being seen and hired instantly - FFD's "Emergency Aid" feature provides professionals the ability to offer-up their services for a quick short-term project, while offering the talent seeker the ability hire talent on the spot. This slick little feature can be updated directly from any web-enabled device and is visible on both FFD as well as FMForums.
- * The opportunity to post an unlimited number of open positions at your company - Benefit includes presence on all the major global FileMaker-based lists, blogs and sites - six in total - prominent placement on the largest FileMaker forum, FMForums, as well as being featured on a handful of independent job and career sites.

And we're just getting started ... FindFileMakerDevelopers is a robust resource, one that continues to gain forward momentum month-to-month. We think it's time for your business to benefit from being listed on the finest FileMaker profile engine available.
