Calgary, Canada - Macgamestore.com today announced Mac Games Arcade, an exciting new digital download application for Mac OS X. Mac Games Arcade allows users to download, purchase and manage their Mac games all through an innovative and easy-to-use Mac interface.

With Mac Games Arcade, users will be able to browse through hundreds of digital download Mac titles from over 100 Mac developers, check out demos, write reviews, purchase games, and maintain their digital downloads. Built by Mac developers, Mac Games Arcade is the brain-child of Inside Mac Games/Macgametore.com founder and former Bungie Software project leader, Tuncer Deniz. "Mac Games Arcade makes digital downloads fast and easy.", said Tuncer Deniz. "No more unzipping, installing, scrambling for your serial number, and worrying about losing your digital downloads. It's the one-stop solution for Mac game digital downloads."

Mac Games Arcade also includes useful features such as auto-serialization for many recent Mac digital download games. Once you purchase the game, the application auto-registers the game, so no complex numbers to enter. Just purchase and start playing within seconds.

Other features include:

Easy Browsing - Quickly and efficiently browse through hundreds of Macintosh games in either icon or list view. Check out descriptions, features, screenshots, and system requirements.

Quick Downloading - Download demos and full games with a single click with no messy installing. Once you download it, Mac Games Arcade installs the game and you're ready to play.

Fast and Secure Purchasing - Purchase Mac games fast and securely. Add games to your cart, then checkout and start playing games within seconds.

Ease of Mind Maintenance - With Mac Games Arcade you no longer have to worry about losing your digital downloads. Mac Games Arcade keeps a complete history of all your purchases. You can re-download and reinstall your purchased games any time you want, forever.

Mac Games Arcade is currently in beta testing and will be released in December. The company is inviting users to join in on the beta test by visiting the Mac Games Arcade web site at <http://www.macgamesarcade.com> and submitting an application.

When released, Mac Games Arcade will require a Mac with Mac OS X 10.4 or better. For more information, visit the Mac Games Arcade website.
