

FriendsWire Now Offers Even More Facebook-Viewing Functionality For iOS

Published on 12/14/11

MyClickApps LLC today announces FriendsWire 1.3, an update to their popular social networking app for iOS devices. If you're tired of reading Facebook the old fashioned way, give your eyes a refreshing change and read your Facebook news feed in style. Users can read their Facebook feed in magazine style and now can navigate through their friends list faster and easier than ever. Version 1.3 offers enhanced interactivity with the ability to comment and "like" friends Facebook activity and more.

Wilmington, Delaware - MyClickApps LLC today is pleased to announce an update to FriendsWire for iOS. The unique, magazine-style, personalized Facebook experience for iOS just got better! FriendsWire (universal) for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch now allows users the ability to "like" or comment on friends' posts from within the app itself! Users will also be delighted to more quickly search for and navigate to specific friend's pages and share FriendsWire on your Facebook wall so you can share the experience with friends.

FriendsWire still offers the data-saving offline experience for folks who like to download data on wifi and read it later. The app also still offers the unique ability to sort through Facebook news by organizing friends according to the activity they have exhibited on Facebook over the last day. When viewing the app on iPad, users can see the most popular status, photo and video on the front cover. It's a fun, easy way to catch up on the latest buzz from your friends.

If you're tired of reading Facebook the "old fashioned" way, give your eyes a refreshing change and read your Facebook news feed in style. FriendsWire is a pleasant magazine-like experience for users and iPad owners will enjoy a front cover for each daily issue they open.
