

seyDesign releases RapidWeaver theme seyDoggy Gotem, with ExtraContent

Published on 12/05/08

seyDesign is proud to announce their latest RapidWeaver theme, seyDoggy Gotem. This new theme comes with a special new feature called ExtraContent, a technique developed collaboratively with (((Bonsai Studio))) and RapidWeaverThemes. ExtraContent allows users to add more content to designated areas of a theme that would not normally be accessible by RapidWeaver.

Kitchener, Ontario Canada - seyDesign is proud to announce seyDoggy Gotem, their latest in a growing catalogue of RapidWeaver themes. Gotem is a sophisticated, contemporary RapidWeaver theme of extraordinary beauty and capability. But it also sports a new technology called ExtraContent.

ExtraContent came about when a handful of 3rd party developers got together to address the need for more content spaces in RapidWeaver. While the content area and sidebar are ample space for the vast majority of RapidWeaver users, there are some who want more flexibility to add content in ways keeping with todays modern web designs.

ExtraContent was the solution agreed upon by (((Bonsai Studios))), RapidWeaverThemes.com and seyDesign, as an easy means of end users adding more content to their site, in developer designated areas of ExtraContent enabled themes. While these areas will vary from theme to theme, the process will be very much the same. These developers worked closely to come up with a solution that would give all users a common experience.
