Published on 02/22/12

iWeb Themes Park announced an update on their iWeb Themes and the new package containing 160 iWeb Templates is now available via company's website. 5 new themes called "Grey Wave", "Oak", "Yellow Blue", "Company" and "Cardboard" have been added to the package and is now on offer. Every new Template is full of exceptional details, adorned with lively colors and can be used for composing a small business or private website. It's a great add-on for Apple's iWeb - popular web design application.

Kaunas, Lithuania - iWeb Themes developer, iWeb Themes Park, announced an update on their iWeb Themes collection and the new package, called "iWeb Themes Box" is now available via company's website. It totals 160 iWeb Templates, including 5 brand new Themes - "Grey Wave", "Oak", "Yellow Blue", "Company" and "Cardboard". Themes can be purchased as a package or separately.

iWeb Themes are easy-to-modify design solutions for Apple's iWeb and can be used for creating individual websites. "We were trying to make our new Themes adaptable to a great variety of interests and hobbies shared among different people. We were working towards this and I believe we fulfilled our goal successfully," says Eugenijus Valinskas, the project manager from iWeb Themes Park.

"Oak" theme is perfect for presenting wooden interiors and designs, while "Cardboard" suits to express everyone's individual experiences. "Grey Wave" theme can be used for a growing business by individual chefs or restaurants and "Company" theme will be useful for ordinary business owners in building small business websites. "Yellow Blue" theme is very lively and rich in bright colors and will surely appeal to people seeking to make their website exceptional and memorable.

To use iWeb Themes from iWeb Themes Park requires just a Mac with iWeb from iLife '09 or later.
