

Urban Design announces Qu-s - Do more with your Desktop

Published on 12/31/08

Urban Design Limited today announces the release and the immediate availability of Qu-s, a unique utility that adds functionality to your Desktop. Throw away that scrap paper for phone numbers, forget the whiteboard for inspirational nuggets, and stop bookmarking the entire internet. Qu-s is the permanent answer for organizing all your temporary items. Use Qu-s for storing internet links, jotting down thoughts, and remembering tasks.

London, England - Urban Design Limited today announces the release and the immediate availability of Qu-s, a unique utility that adds functionality to your Desktop. Throw away that scrap paper for phone numbers, forget the whiteboard for inspirational nuggets, and stop bookmarking the entire internet. Qu-s is the permanent answer for organizing all your temporary items. Use Qu-s for storing internet links, jotting down thoughts, and remembering tasks.

But what makes Qu-s unique, is by utilizing the Desktop it keeps what you need at your finger tips but out of your way. Using a design aware and simple interface, with fun and sophistication, Qu-s uses advance features usually reserved for word processing applications to bring organization to your ideas and your notes.

These and other features are as follows:

- * Bullet, check boxes and numbered lists
- * File and internet links with previews
- * A built in browser with the capability of zooming web pages
- * An automated system for storing and clearing completed tasks
- * Multiple ways of organizing and displaying information
- * Exporting content for use with other applications

Minimum Requirements:

- * Mac OS X Version 10.5 Leopard or higher

By not complicating a simple process, Qu-s is the program you've wanted, the organizing tool you need, and the fast access and creative linking you deserve.

Pricing and Availability:

Qu-s can be purchased online for $16.95 (USD). For more information on Qu-s which includes a full interactive tour, or to download a fully functional demo version, please visit the company web site.
