Having had an array of artists/ bands on the program such as: Ra Ra Riot, New Buffalo, Longwave, The Brunettes, Langhorne Slim, Jason Collett and Matt Keating, Live Studio is excited to be in the position to solidify its position as one of the most dynamic and diverse live music shows on the Internet.

The program's eclectic mix of quality music guests continues in 2009 with performances scheduled for: Red Wire Black Wire, Gabriel Kahane, Drink Up Buttercup, Greta Gertler & The Fondles, Andy Friedman & The Other Failures, The Jones Street Boys, Kelley McRae and The Loom.

Stay tuned for more announcements from BTR's Live Studio in the coming weeks!

About BreakThru Radio:

In a world where independent music is becoming infinitely more accessible on the Internet, the need for informed sources to filter out the best of it has become a necessity. "Music for music lovers," is BTR's motto, and one that its DJ's take very seriously.

Unlike other radio stations, BTR offers complete, on-demand programming; a first in internet radio. Listeners can cater to their specific musical preferences, whatever the genre, and at the same time discover the best independent and unsigned artists from across the world. Access the BTR iPhone/ iTouch application application by navigating to the website in Safari on their device.
