Mumbai, India - After the success of the Dress Up for Girls app series, Internet Design Zone, an iOS developer company, today is pleased to announce a new iPhone/iPad app: Dress Up For Girls: Animals. Girls can showcase their sense of fashion, style and creativity by dressing up the cutest animals on screen.

Dress Up For Girls: Animals is loaded with snazzy clothes and accessories to create stylish avatars for animals. Girls can dress up a cute Rabbit, adorable Elephant, mischievous Monkey, mamma Bear or a sweet Squirrel. Girls can't do this in real life, but on the iPad or iPhone, they can make the animals look hip and fashionable. A variety of options are available for each animal such as tops, bottoms, jackets, shoes and a whole lot of accessories like hats, sunglasses, jewelry, bags and purses. Hundreds of unique looks can be created with the options available.

This app will ensure lots of fun for young girls who are bored of playing normal girl dressup games. Girls can play the game with their friends and see who can create the best looks. The final looks can be saved in the photo album and displayed as wallpapers. They can also be used as display pictures for the contact details of friends on iPhone. Girls who love dressup games will like playing this game app. Lots of dresses and accessories will keep girls busy for a good time.
