

macZOT Offers FileChute This Weekend at 50% off - Send Files Easily

Published on 03/13/09

This weekend - March 12th and 13th. Get FileChute on macZOT for 50% off. FileChute makes sending files easy. Just drag a file and drop it on FileChute. FileChute puts the file on your MobileMe account and generates a web link for retrieving the file all in one step. Next drag the generated link into your email and you're set to go. And since what you're sending is just a link, your recipients can retrieve the file from a Mac, a PC or any other platform.

Port Townsend, Washington - This weekend - March 12th and 13th. Get Yellow Mug Software's "FileChute" on macZOT for 50% off. FileChute makes sending files easy. Just drag a file and drop it on FileChute. FileChute puts the file on your MobileMe account and generates a web link for retrieving the file all in one step. Next drag the generated link into your email and you're set to go. And since what you're sending is just a link, your recipients can retrieve the file from a Mac, a PC or any other platform.

You can even drop multiple files or folders at once. FileChute automatically creates an archive in the format of your choice - it supports dmg, zip and tar - and sends the archive file.

FileChute works best with a MobileMe account, configuration is super easy. But since not everyone has a MobileMe account, FileChute also works great with other FTP or WebDAV-accessible web server. Perform the one-time set up by following the built-in Help. Once it is properly set up, FileChute works just as perfectly with non-MobileMe servers.

" For people who frequently send large files across the Internet, Yellow Mug Software's FileChute is the easiest solution I've seen. "
- Dan Frakes, MacWorld Magazine
