Illinois based Windy Town today announces Make Me Laugh, an update to their spontaneous laughter app for iPhone and iPod Touch. Designed specifically to leverage the iPhone's unique abilities and interface, 'Make Me Laugh' is a funny new iPhone App with fresh, newly recorded, and infectious laughs. With such titles as The BellyFull, Le Geysers, Et Tu Bart, ElBursto, and The Wheezer, and more, Make Me Laugh might well become the laughing stock of the entire App Store.

Bartlett, Illinois - Independent multimedia company Windy Town today announces Make Me Laugh, an update to their spontaneous laughter app for iPhone and iPod Touch. Designed specifically to leverage the iPhone's unique abilities and interface, 'Make Me Laugh' is a funny new iPhone App with fresh, newly recorded, and infectious laughs.

"I wanted to make an iPhone app that all can relate to," said Michael Droste, owner and founder of Windy Town. "Besides music, laughter can also be considered a universal language. After Make Me Laugh, everyone has been laughing ever since. Recording the laughter was the hardest part of the project. I needed to record an honest, and genuine laugh, and wanted to capture that special moment of hilarity, the essence. Recording the spontaneous outbursts was the key" Droste said.

Everyone needs a little laughter right now. With such titles as El Famosa, Et Tu Bart, The BellyFull, Trailer, Humoresque, Ala Gaffe, Le Gaffe, Le Geysers, The Wheezer and more, Make Me Laugh might well become the laughing stock of the entire App Store. Each track is thrown into a special effects time warp that includes reverse, echo, pitch shifting and others. Use Make Me Laugh as your own personal laugh track.
