

Take a Stand for Monster's Rights in Battle with Monster Tower for iOS

Published on 10/12/12

South Korean based NOWCOM announces the release of Monster Tower 1.2 for the iPhone, iPod touch, and iPad. A whimsical new take on the tower defense genre, this vibrant arcade adventure takes an unlikely side - that of the monsters - and challenges gamers to protect their misunderstood minion's last safe haven from waves of invading soldiers, zombie, and more. The game features over 75 levels, dozens of upgradable monsters and traps to choose from, and now features full support for iPod touch.

Seongnam, South Korea - NOWCOM Co., a global entertainment company, is publishing many popular online and mobile games and a SNS media platform 'afreecaTV', is excited to announce the launch of a newly updated version of Monster Tower onto the App Store. Compatible with the iPhone, iPad, and just recently the iPod touch as well, Monster Tower is a wildly stylized new mobile tower defence romp that flips the much-loved genre on its head, making monsters instead of men its central band of heros! With the action going down through an innovative multi-level 2D stage players are charged with dispatching various monsters and setting diverse traps to head off incoming waves of goofy invaders!

With dozens of unlockable and upgradable monsters and traps to choose from and 3 level packs to battle through this is one tower defense spectacle gamers are going to come back to time and time again. Monster Tower is currently available as a free download on the App Store in the Games category. This unique tower defense game delivers family friendly fun while subverting its genre and bringing players a completely new way to experience strategic arcade gaming!

The story behind Monster Tower is simple - the poor misunderstood monsters of the world have been hunted across every corner of the world by man. Desperate, the monsters have decided to make a stand and stop ornery invaders from destroying their last home and wiping them out for good! This is where the player steps in. It's their job to release monsters one at a time to meet any and all invading threats, but players will have to choose which monsters they send out strategically, upgrade their armies thoughtfully, and use their many traps in barriers in all the right ways if they want to win!

Monster Tower features eighteen diverse monster minions for gamers to unlock and upgrade, as well as twenty one unlockable traps to choose from! The game features three level packs instantly - Human, Zombie, and Machine - each giving you a new species of foe to fight against and 25 levels to do in! What are you waiting for? Take up the good fight and start doing your part to defend the monsters floor by floor, level by level, and war by war today!
