

Meridian has launched Cafe Once Upon a Time

Published on 10/15/12

Meridian Digital Entertainment Limited introduces "Cafe Once Upon a Time," its new time management game developed exclusively for iPhone and iPad. Cafe Once Upon a Time is a cafe running game set in a fable world. It brings together a number of characters from classic fairy tales and put them into the same universe. "Cafe Once Upon a Time features 8 distinctively themed cafes, with a large collection of classic fairy tale characters, story mode with 50 levels of catering fun and more.

Hong Kong - Meridian, a leading developer of games on the iOS platform, has recently launched a new time management game named "Cafe Once Upon a Time" on the App Store. It is available for free to download on the iPhone, iPod touch, and iPad.

As the name suggests, Cafe Once Upon a Time is a cafe running game set in a fable world. It brings together a number of characters from classic fairy tales and put them into the same universe. The game has received tremendous amount of positive feedback from players in Hong Kong and other parts of Asia. It has reached #1 in the Top Free ranking for Simulation category and #3 for All Games.

"Cafe Once Upon a Time is a special concept of assembling different fairy tales together into the same storyline and then blending them with a cafe management theme which many mobile gamers are familiar with." said Victor Dao, Director of Meridian. "We want to make Cafe Once Upon a Time stand out from other time management games, so we have added the ability to use magical boost items as well as being able to hire fairy tale characters as helpers in the cafe. We believe such additions can bring a new experience to the players."

Features:

- * Story mode with 50 levels of catering fun
- * Large collection of classic fairy tale characters
- * 8 distinctively themed cafes
- * Use magical boost items and magic skills to help you manage the cafe more easily
- * 4-inch Retina display support on iPhone 5 and 5th generation iPod touch

Pricing and Availability:

Cafe Once Upon a Time for iPhone and iPad is free and available worldwide exclusively through the App Store in the Games category. Following the launch of iPhone 5 and the 5th generation iPod touch by Apple, Cafe Once Upon a Time also supports the all new 4-inch Retina display.
