Published on 03/29/09

Xantheose Labs has released March Mayhem 1.0 for iPhone and iPod Touch. March Mayhem, keeps users in touch with their favorite teams throughout the tournament. With an easy to use interface, you can find current scores, review past games, and find out the scheduled times for any game in the tournament. All for free.

Provo, Utah - The March basketball tourney is one of the craziest times of the year and the three developers at Xantheose Labs have decided to join the madness. Their first iPhone app, March Mayhem, let's users view live scores, check bracket info, and follow news on their favorite teams throughout the tournament. All for free.

Feature Highlights:

- * Live scores
- * Official bracket updates
- * My Teams: follow your favorite teams
- * All news

More information on the features of March Mayhem:

News - A little obsessed with college basketball? So are we. Sate your thirst for college basketball news by reading the latest game headlines and stories right in the app.

My Teams - Don't waste your time searching for basketball news that you care about. With March Mayhem App, you can choose which teams you want to follow, and get up-to-date news and scores right on your device!

Scores - We know how important it is to know how your team is playing...you've waited a whole year for this! So whether you're in a meeting, at a stoplight, or stuck in an elevator you can check live scores with the tap of a button. With an easy to use interface, you can find current scores, review past games, and find out the scheduled times for any game in the tournament!

Brackets - Wanna find out who's still in and who didn't make the cut? Follow the entire tournament round by round with the built-in bracket.

Minimum Requirements:

- * iPhone/iPod Touch OS 2.2
- * Internet Connection

The market for tournament applications on the iPhone has few competitors and Xantheose hopes to capture a large percentage of the users. March Mayhem appeared on the App Store on March 20.
