

Christmas InstaBooth - Personalised digital cards

Published on 11/12/12

UK based Leicester Web Designer today introduces Christmas InstaBooth 1.0 for iOS, a new app to help consumers save money. Effortlessly post personalised or pre-designed digital cards to friends, family and colleagues, via Facebook, Twitter, Email or MMS. You can create personalised cards, by using your iPhone camera, add your message, and then simply post it to the recipient. It's that simple. The added bonus is that it won't even cost you a penny to send the card.

Leicester, United Kingdom - Leicester Web Designer today is pleased to announce the release of Christmas InstaBooth 1.0, a new app to help consumers save money, by being able to post personalised or pre-designed digital cards to friends, family and colleagues, via Facebook, Twitter, Email or MMS. You can create personalised cards, by using your iPhone camera, then adding your message, and then simply posting it to the recipient. It's that simple. The added bonus is that it won't even cost you a penny!

Award-winning developer, Mayuir Sidhpara said "Christmas InstaBooth will help people to save money on buying cards and mail postage. By using the app, you will be able to reach all your family and friends, using the most used technology in the world. As our reliance upon the infrastructure of the Internet increases day by day, sending cards by post will become a thing of the past."
