

Group Logic Announces New Education Licensing Program for ExtremeZ-IP

Published on 04/06/09

Group Logic, Inc. announced today its new Enterprise License Program for Education (ELP-EDU) for ExtremeZ-IP, its industry-leading software solution for seamlessly integrating Mac desktops into Window server environments. The ELP-EDU licensing program allows K-12 and higher education customers worldwide to procure and deploy ExtremeZ-IP across an entire school, campus and/or system with a single license key and support contract.

Arlington VA - Group Logic, Inc., the leading provider of Mac/Windows connectivity solutions, announced today its new Enterprise License Program for Education (ELP-EDU) for ExtremeZ-IP - its industry-leading software solution for seamlessly integrating Mac desktops into Window server environments.

The ELP-EDU licensing program is part of Group Logic's recently unveiled Enterprise License Program (ELP), and allows K-12 and higher education customers worldwide to procure and deploy ExtremeZ-IP across an entire school, campus and/or system with a single license key and support contract. ELP-EDU is designed to meet the needs of organizations actively seeking to reduce software asset management costs, and is optimized for educational institutions.

The ELP-EDU model is designed to deliver customers a decreased Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) and increased Return on Investment (ROI) across their entire IT infrastructure. ELP-EDU also minimizes the time required for administrator management.

"The ExtremeZ-IP Enterprise Licensing Program for Education is a logical choice for educational organizations of any size that seek the flexibility and efficiency of managing a few hundred to several thousand Mac users," said Reid Lewis, CEO of Group Logic, Inc. "ExtremeZ-IP is the proven standard for Mac/Windows compatibility for those companies looking to deliver platform-agnostic file and print sharing support for their users. This new licensing model gives our education customers a new, cost-effective approach for delivering compatibility without compromise."

For more details about ExtremeZ-IP for Education, please visit Group Logic's Web site. Information about ExtremeZ-IP and the Enterprise License Program for Education can also be requested by contacting Group Logic directly at 1.703.528.1555 or 800.476.8781.

Group Logic:
<http://www.grouplogic.com>

More About ExtremeZ-IP:
<http://www.grouplogic.com/products/extremeZ-IP/>

More About ELP for Education:
<http://www.grouplogic.com/solutions/?fa=education-pricing>

Download a Free Trial:
<http://www.grouplogic.com/products/extremez-ip/?fa=free-trial>

Buy Online:
<http://www.grouplogic.com/store/>

Group Logic Resource Center:
<http://www.grouplogic.com/resource-center/>

prMac: Publish Once, Broadcast the World :: <http://prmac.com>

Group Logic is the leading provider of network software solutions that enable customers to gain strategic value, increase productivity and leverage existing infrastructure investments through enterprise file transfer and Mac/Windows connectivity solutions. With nearly 20 years of unmatched experience, Group Logic's emphasis on customer success is the very core of its business. More than 4,000 customers trust Group Logic every day to move and share their files around the world.

###

Kate Bland
Director of Marketing
703-778-8446

katebland@grouplogic.com

Link To Article: <https://prmac.com/release-id-5075.htm>
