Moraga, California - Spinapse announced the release of Diffle 1.1, a fast-paced un-matching game designed to challenge your brain. Diffle is available immediately for the iPhone and iPod Touch. The Diffle gameboard has 9 tokens. Players choose 3 tokens that are most different from each other. The more different they are, the more points earned.

With each combination, players can boost their score and get 3 new tokens. They'll also get a Diffle light at the bottom of the screen. When they get 7 of those lights, they're on to the next level. Time gets tighter as players make their way through the levels, and the pressure is on! Diffle's tips section includes hints for strategies to increase your score. The Worldwide Scoreboard lists the top players of the day, as well as the top players of all time.
