Tap Three Kingdoms is an online simulation game that uses Tri Dynasty era from the history of China as a back ground. For players that don't understand the history of the Tri dynasty era, here's a little description. At end of East Han dynasty, the emperor's royal family and eunuch officials are not only corrupted, they also abused their powers as government officials. Along with all these problems there were also many natural disasters. By 184 A.D, the founder "Tai Pin Taoism" Zhang Jiao, call on the people to raise up, and over throw the corrupted East Han dynasty. With yellow turban strap to their head and the slogan "East Han is dead, it's now Yellow turban's world, and Year of the Rat and World peace will come." the Yellow turban revolution has started. This chaos war and revolution lasted almost 100 years, until the Tri Dynasty Kingdoms started.

The game includes live chats, Hero training, and substantial war system. It has the components of tight intense plot, multiform play method, rich content, amazing graphics, and magnificent war scenes all in one. The dream of building your own troops and army to run down other kingdoms, and rule with the most gorgeous girl of all times by your side, You can become the king that rise above all.

To start the game in Tap Three Kingdoms, first you have to chose a dynasty. There are three dynasty to chose from; <Wei> Cao Cao, <Shu> Liu Bei, <Wu> Sun Quan, depends on the different dynasty you chose it has different graphic style. I would suggest you players out there to try it out, because the experience of the historic dynasty is different and phenomenal.
