

CleverMonkey a Game Challenging Our Intelligence - Limited Time Free App

Published on 01/17/13

FIG introduces CleverMonkey 1.0 for iOS. A new game capsizes the traditional game play of casual puzzle genre. Clever Monkey innovates a series puzzle solving module. It is a brand new game play approach based on the level design of the catapult puzzle mechanism. Each tollgate is full of wisdom because they have limited balls. If such balls are used up but players haven't collected all of the food, they will fall to upgrade. There are various barriers like boxes, boards and ice cubes.

Shanghai, China - FIG is proud to introduce CleverMonkey 1.0 for iOS. It is the first one that has established a new way of interlinked puzzles, and main game media in China compete with one another to report it. Meanwhile, the interlinked puzzles also make numerous players feel mysterious and novel.

Each tollgate is full of wisdom because they have limited balls. If such balls are used up but you haven't collected all of the food, you will fall in upgrade. In addition, there will be various barriers like boxes, boards and ice cubes in each tollgate. The boxes and boards can rebound balls, so you can have the aid of their rebound force to send balls to such food. The deceptive situation is that it seems that the ice cubes melt as long as they are touched, but the melted thing is the ball you cast. Therefore, when you draw a line, you must find an accurate angle and avoid touching such ice cubes.

Feature Highlights:

- * The new mode of interlinked puzzles is created for the first time
- * An interlinked puzzle regards the results of the last puzzle as the elements of the next one so that all puzzles are all linked with one another. Thus, a way to solve puzzles is established
- * The perfect combination of pop-up and physical puzzles
- * It is a new game which integrates the pop-up of 'Bird' and the physical puzzles of 'Crocodile'
- * A game with the most deepness of puzzles
- * The design of tollgates is challenging

It is believed that the launch of CleverMonkey in 2013 will guide a new trend. In addition, the teams that develop mobile games can also create more excellent works in the mode of interlinked puzzles. As a result, the sentence 'Have you played interlinked puzzles today?' will be the most common greeting in 2013.
