Kitchener, ON, Canada - June 15, 2007 - XtraLean Software is pleased to announce its third annual Father's Day Sale, offering Dads two products at a savings of 45%. From June 13 to June 17, users can get ShutterBug for only $29.95 USD (reg. $39.95). When users purchase ShutterBug at the special price, they will also receive a free copy of ImageWell Xtras (reg. $14.95). A discount code is required to purchase at the special price. Offer details are available from <http://www.xtralean.com>.

Both products come with many fresh enhancements and can be tried for free, or purchased at the special bundle price of only $29.95 USD, giving users a total savings of $24.95. ShutterBug and ImageWell can help simplify online life with easy web site publishing and simple and fast image editing.

ShutterBug is an easy to use website creation tool for Mac OS X that will help users create and publish a stylish website easily, quickly, and custom built to one's specific and personalized needs. ImageWell is a lean, yet powerful image editor for Mac OS X that lets users quickly and easily edit, resize, and send pictures and files to anyone, anywhere with one simple click of a button. The Xtras offer even more handy features such as batch resizing, batch watermarking, and much more.

ShutterBug and ImageWell require Mac OS X 10.3.9 or better and are Universal Binaries for both Intel-based Mac and Power PC support. Both products support .Mac accounts, WebDAV hosts, FTP/SFTP, and Export to a Folder. A full-featured demo version of ShutterBug can be tried for free. ShutterBug regularly retails at $39.95 USD, but for a limited time only, it is available for $29.95 USD and includes a free copy of ImageWell Xtras (reg. price $14.95 USD).
