

Top Friends 1.0 released - Brings Minority Report style GUI to iPhone

Published on 05/14/09

Smudge Apps today released Top Friends 1.0, a new iPhone App that integrates advanced multi-touch technology with making phone calls. A picture based speed dialer, Top Friends allows you to add photos of the people you call the most onto a pin board, and then manipulate the images in a Minority Report style interface, scaling, moving and rotating the images into a design that works for you. To call, you simply double tap a picture.

Christchurch, New Zealand - Top Friends, a new iPhone Application from Smudge Apps, integrates advanced multi-touch and graphics technology with making phone calls. Top Friends is a photo picture board that lets you speed dial your contacts. The advanced iPhone Application allows you to add photos of the people you call the most onto a pin board, and then manipulate the images in a "Minority Report" style interface, scaling, moving and rotating the images with your fingers into a design that works for you. To call, you simply double tap a picture.

This App leverages the full potential of the iPhones ground breaking technology, utilizing the widescreen Multi-Touch display to deliver a visually impressive experience on the go.
