Tokyo, Japan - Tokyo, Japan - Indie developer Tomoyoshi Natsui is proud to announce the updated Everlisten 1.2 and "Everlisten - Lite Edition - " for iOS. User can add the music from iPod library to playlist managed by this application. This application plays a music from the "Start Position", and it plays a music for "Playback Duration". You can send music forward and backward when you pan the artwork displayed on the screen toward right or left.

Features:

- * Non-stop mode - if user selects "On", the music will be started from "Start Position" and it will be ended after "Playback Duration".
- * Start Position - user can specify the start position of music at Non-stop mode.
- * Playback Duration - user can specify the playback duration of music at Non-stop mode.
- * Intelligent Shuffle - If user select "On", this application shuffles the music order so that all the music may take 1 round exactly.
- * Cross Fade Duration - user can specify the duration of cross fade.

Your favorite music may remind you the thought which only you felt.
Now, let's recover you-likeness.
