Barcelona, Spain - Discrea today is proud to offer Blokis for iOS and Android for free. Blokis is a puzzle game where you must show your skills to clear the board of blocks. Throw blocks from the four sides to clear the level destroying all blocks on the board. Do it in a limited time and dodging all obstacles in 96 challenging levels. It's an addictive game!

How to play:

- * You must destroy all the blocks of color (red, yellow, green, blue, gray and purple) and have different ways to do
- * Matching 3 or more blocks of the same color, they explode
- * The block "bomb" destroys the four adjacent blocks
- * The block "lightning" destroys all in a row until it encounters an obstacle
- * Removing them from the board

Easy and fun to play, but a challenge to fully master, players can obtain extra seconds by exploding blocks and taking clocks during the game.

Block Types:

- * Conveyor belt: Changes the direction of the blocks
- * Multicolor: Acquires the color of the first block it hits

Discrea consists of two developers based in Barcelona, Spain. Since 2011 we develop applications and games, but in 2012 when we started Blokis, a puzzle game. Finally, after several months of development, it's available on the App Store and Google Play. Our goal is to keep getting updates for Blokis and to launch much more games and applications. We are currently working with Android & iOS platforms (iPhone, iPod touch & iPad). But we don't rule out other mobile devices. The more people can enjoy our applications, much better for all.
