Miami, Florida - Offsiteteam Corp. is announcing the latest update of CuteShot 2.5.1, universal iOS app for creating and sharing customized postcards. The app contains 22 specific-themed set of postcards, or albums. CuteShot is not another app made just for fun and entertainment. It's a kind of social app that allows people to communicate and share the best moments of their life, captured in personalized postcards.

"The app delivers a lot of quality and entertaining camera-fueled novelty action, which translates to a lot of value on the iPhone," said reviewers from The iPhone App Review team.

CuteShot postcard-making process involves only 3 easy steps: choosing a template, inserting a postcard and posting it to Facebook, Twitter or sending it per email. A postcard can additionally be accompanied by a short "Hello" message, warm wishes or congratulations. The latest update brings along a new Sport album. This special summer edition contains 10 postcards for all sport amateurs.
