Franklin, Wisconsin - Mac Mini Vault announces its seventh Mac mini colocation cabinet has gone online, increasing the current capacity to over 1,000 Mac minis. Along with this new cabinet, a build out has begun to double capacity for Mac minis by 2015.

To celebrate this achievement Mac Mini Vault is offering its colocation services at unheard of discounted levels. New and existing customers that place an order for Enterprise colocation service between July 1st 2013 and July 14th, 2013 and use the promotional code 'MMV-5for6' will receive colocation service for $5.00 USD per month for six (6) months. This is a 90% discount from the standard $49.99 USD monthly cost. Customers can ship their Mac mini to Mac Mini Vault or purchase one directly from Mac Mini Vault for quick deployment. There are no contracts or commitments as a part of this promotion. Customers may downgrade or cancel at any point.

Mac Mini Vault's Rent2Own option is also available for customers that order during this promotion. This program takes the retail cost of a Mac mini or Mac mini Server and splits it up over a 12 month period. There are no interest or setup fees. Once the 12 payments have been made, the machine is owned by the customer just as if they purchased it outright when signing up.

The Mac mini Enterprise colocation service includes premium features such as remote reboot control, network interface graphing, free hands-on support hours, free loaner Mac mini, unmetered gigabit network connection, as well as a perpetual hardware warranty. The perpetual warranty is a hardware guarantee that Mac Mini Vault offers while Mac minis are collocated in their facility. Visit Mac Mini Vault online for more information and to sign up for a free 48 hour trial, no commitment necessary. Free trials of the service are available to approved media outlets. Please contact CyberLynk for more information.
