MyService has announced 24hr iPod Touch repairs. Wash your iPod Touch with the laundry on Monday, and sing along about it on Wednesday. You can now get the same great customer service, quality repairs and superfast turnaround from MyService, for your iPod Touch. New overnight express shipping options make it fast and affordable to get your Touch repaired and back in your hands. A free diagnostic, free roundtrip shipping, professional installation of any new parts, and a shipping container.

Santa Clara, California - MyService has announced overnight iPod Touch repairs. Cracked screen? Liquid spill? No power? Bring your iPod Touch back to life for the fraction of the cost of a new one. With an average 24hr turnaround you'll be listening to your iPod in no time. All parts are brand new and services are performed by Apple certified technicians.

According to MyService president Justin Sanderson, "Since we started performing iPhone repairs, the number one request from our customers has been, "When will you be offering iPod Touch repairs?" The iPod Touch is an employee favorite so we're real excited to be offering our customers this new service."

What the service includes:

A free diagnostic, free roundtrip shipping, professional installation of any new parts, and a shipping container.

How the service works:

MyService instantly emails you an overnight UPS return label. Pack your iPod Touch in it's original (or similar) box and send it in to MyService. Once your iPod arrives at MyService, an Apple certified technician performs a complete diagnostic on your iPod. Your service advisor will keep you informed every step of the way. After the service is complete, your iPod is cleaned, tested and sent back to you. All services are completed within 24 hours of arrival.
