

Important Update for InstaDo Fans - Invite and Date Other InstaDo Users

Published on 07/01/13

Roasted Brains Studio is pleased to announce a major update to the iOS App InstaDo: Friend Zone is Over through Fun Flirt and Easy Social Dating, is now available on Apple App Store. The new version of InstaDo allows the already users of the app, based on their choice, to search, invite and date each other, and also gives anyone the possibility to share their invitation to the Facebook friend's wall if they desire to do so.

Timisoara, Romania - Roasted Brains introduces InstaDo: Friend Zone is Over through Fun Flirt and Easy Social Dating 1.1 for iOS. This is a great update for anyone who's tired of always ending up being friend zoned or ignored by others. Users can safely ask Facebook friends or any other InstaDo users through a fun way, choosing between an old fashioned style or a direct approach. You can invite them to coffee, dinner, movie or directly to do it, they will receive a private message, but they will never ever see your choice. If they're interested too they can answer and a match is done on the softest pick between the two. Chat opens up so you can plan your date.

Here's How it Works:

1. Create your account by logging in with Facebook, browse your friends or app users and click on the ones you fancy.
2. Invite them to coffee, dinner, movie or directly to Do It. A private Facebook notification is sent, but they will never ever see your choice.
3. If they're interested too, they will answer and a match is done on the softest pick between the two.
4. Chat opens up so you can plan going out on a date!

Private and secure by design, InstaDo is totally discreet and private, therefore will never post anything to your Facebook page without your permission and will do everything necessary to protect your privacy.

"This app wins in terms of privacy and self-esteem protection."

"InstaDo is a great App for anyone whose tired of always ending up in your crush's friend zone! Too anxious to tell them in person? Then InstaDo is perfect. You can safely ask any of your Facebook friends out on a date! The app also has a fun and easy layout and interface. This App is a must try!"

"With this launch, InstaDo has an opportunity to become a significant player in areas like social dating, fun and entertainment."

"InstaDo is the app with real consequence. I really love the way."
