Malibu, California - appsNmindd, an iPhone app development company successfully founded only 6 months ago by 3 LA moms, have teamed up with Eric Herman to bring his run away success YouTube video to the iTunes Store. The Elephant Song passed the 5 Million mark on YouTube, as children and adults alike made this one of the sites most popular and highest rated videos. Elephant Song, the kid-friendly custom app was launched on iTunes to the same overwhelming response.

"We are really excited to bring The Elephant Song to the app Store. The song and lyrics are just compelling - addicting, really! My own kids won't stop singing it and from our customer reviews, they are having the same experience!" exclaimed Jesse Douglas, partner. "We expect this to be somewhat of a vertical rocket in terms of what's out there for young children's apps."

"How to describe Eric Herman? He is a mix between Shel Silverstein and The Beatles. If you're a big Shel fan, definitely check this out." - Stefan Shepard, Zooglobber.
