Based in Hong Kong - Appop today is proud to announce Dragon Puzzle 1.3 for iOS With more than 200 stunning characters and a compelling story line set in a fantasy landscape, Dragon Puzzle is without doubt a game that is on the must-have list of most online game enthusiasts. Another reason why this iOS game is bulldozing through the popularity charts is that it is easy to play and allows players to create a powerful troop of their own.

Dragon Puzzle offers some of the most stunning characters in the form of Dragons, Beauties, Monsters, and War Gods. Players can summon over 200 of the most ferocious monsters, evolve them in more than 120 ways, and set them against the Goddesses. The unique features that attract more people to this game, apart from the exciting boss battle, are the 200-plus stunning characters, are the online chat system that allow players to enjoy the game with friends and the ability to enhance the game levels.

There are millions of online players vying for supremacy, which makes playing the Dragon Puzzle even more exciting for players. The thrill they experience while slaying the grotesque zombie and monstrous characters makes for some of the most special gaming moments online players ever have.

According to the developers, players find the task of bringing together legendary monsters and amazing goddesses highly exciting, as they have to engage a careful strategy to assemble the right team for matching the might of a whole army of ferocious enemies. Players can slay demons by eliminating a series of diamonds in a row. The power their troop gain is directly proportional to diamonds eliminated. Players can also invite their online friends and request help from their monsters to gain supremacy in battles.

The Dragon Puzzle offers a quick option to enhance the system and deliver awesome power to the monsters. It is a great way to jack up the excitement levels, expand the adventure levels of the game and create a series of quests, all of which presents an unique challenge to the players.

Getting monsters stronger is one of the ways to get ahead of others in the Dragon Puzzle. The process of making the favorite monsters of players stronger is a stimulating experience and can easily get more and more addictive for the players. Continuous Boss Battles are the way to get battle-scarred for and improve their fighting skills and abilities.

Doing quests is another equally exciting feature, which keeps the players coming back for more. They are forever on the lookout for that rare evolver card that boosts monsters and goddesses. Clearing quests is the gateway to greater power and gives players access to six-star monsters. They can create some of the best troops online with these monsters.
