Tampa Bay, Florida - The mobile gaming company evertap donates nearly $400 to charity on behalf of it's game players from all over the world. During their app launches, evertap has pledged that it would donate a penny for each download they receive in the first three days of launch.

"It's a simple way for our company and our players to give back to the community" says Stephan Noack, Vice President of Operations at evertap; "We pledge one penny per download and get help from our evertap community on which charities to donate."

So far, evertap has raised a total of $385 which they've donated to the following charities:

- * Wounded Warrior Project - $50 Donation
- * Humane Society - $50 Donation
- * Unicef - $50 Donation
- * Environmental Working Group - $50 Donation
- * Make a Wish Foundation - $50 Donation
- * ASPCA - $50 Donation
- * Surfrider Foundation - $50 Donation
- * Tampa Bay Watch - $35 Donation

"It's something we plan on doing for every new game we release and we're hoping that more iOS users jump on to support each cause", Noack says.
